

DANCE ADDICTS Safeguarding Policy and Procedures

Name of organisation: DANCE ADDICTS

Section heading	Explanatory notes	Section content
1. Introduction		DANCE ADDICTS makes a positive contribution to a strong and safe community and recognises the right of every individual to stay safe. DANCE ADDICTS comes into contact with children and / or vulnerable adults through the following activities: dance classes, fitness classes, parent and toddler classes, community events, fundraising activities, social gatherings, dance competitions and festivals The types of contact with children and / or vulnerable adults will be at weekly classes which are held several days per week. This policy seeks to ensure that DANCE ADDICTS undertakes its responsibilities with regard to protection of children and / or vulnerable adults and will respond to concerns appropriately. The policy establishes a framework to support paid and unpaid staff in their practices and clarifies the organisation's expectations.
2. Confirmation of reading		I confirm that I have been made fully aware of, and understand the contents of, the Safeguarding Policy and Procedures for DANCE ADDICTS Please complete the details below and return this completed form to Employee Name : Employee Signature: Date:
3. Legislation		The principal pieces of legislation governing this policy are: ○ Working together to safeguard Children 2010

		○ The Children Act 1989 ○ The Adoption and Children Act 2002: ○ The Children act 2004 ○ Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006 ○ Care Standards Act 2000 ○ Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 ○ The Police Act – CRB 1997 ○ Mental Health Act 1983 ○ NHS and Community Care Act 1990 ○ Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974
4. Definitions		Safeguarding is about embedding practices throughout the organisation to ensure the protection of children and / or vulnerable adults wherever possible. In contrast, child and adult protection is about responding to circumstances that arise. Abuse is a selfish act of oppression and injustice, exploitation and manipulation of power by those in a position of authority. This can be caused by those inflicting harm or those who fail to act to prevent harm. Abuse is not restricted to any socio-economic group, gender or culture. It can take a number of forms, including the following: • Physical abuse • Sexual abuse • Emotional abuse • Bullying • Neglect • Financial (or material) abuse Definition of a child A child is under the age of 18 (as defined in the United Nations convention on the Rights of a Child). Definition of Vulnerable Adults A vulnerable adult is a person aged 18 years or over who may be unable to take care of themselves or protect themselves from harm or from being exploited. This may include a person who: • Is elderly and frail

		• Has a mental illness including dementia • Has a physical or sensory disability • Has a learning disability • Has a severe physical illness • Is a substance misuser • Is homeless
5. Responsibilities		All staff (paid or unpaid) have responsibility to follow the guidance laid out in this policy and related policies, and to pass on any welfare concerns using the required procedures. We expect all staff (paid or unpaid) to promote good practice by being an excellent role model, contribute to discussions about safeguarding and to positively involve people in developing safe practices. Additional specific responsibilities The Designated Senior Manager /lead officers are Allan Lowden and Nicki Lowden
6. Implementation Stages	Within organisations, it is inevitable that there will be other policies which link with the Safeguarding policy and this demonstrates how safeguarding is embedded within the organisation. Policies which may be listed are: • Whistleblowing –ability to inform on other staff/ practices within the organisation • Grievance and disciplinary procedures – to address breaches of procedures/ policies • Health and Safety policy, including lone working procedures, mitigating risk to staff and clients • Equal Opportunities policy– ensuring safeguarding procedures are in line with this policy, in particular around discriminatory abuse and ensuring that the safeguarding policy and procedures are not discriminatory • Data protection (how records are stored and access to those records) • Confidentiality (or limited confidentiality policy) ensuring that service users are aware of your duty to disclose • Staff induction • Staff training	The scope of this Safeguarding Policy is broad ranging and in practice, it will be implemented via a range of policies and procedures within the organisation. These include: Safe recruitment DANCE ADDICTS ensures safe recruitment through the following processes: (insert processes) Criminal Bureau Records Gap Management The organisation commits resources to providing Criminal Bureau Records check on staff (paid or unpaid) whose roles involve contact with children and /or vulnerable adults. In order to avoid CRB gaps, the organisation will (insert methods) In addition to checks on recruitment for roles involving contact with children/ vulnerable adults, for established staff the following processes are in place (insert processes) Service delivery contracting and sub contracting (insert statement if relevant)

There are various aspects which should be more explicitly detailed within the Safeguarding Policy. These relate to:

Recruitment – the following good practice recruitment processes are taken from Gloucestershire Safeguarding Children Board.

- Providing the following safeguarding statement in recruitment adverts or application details – ‘recruitment is done in line with safe recruitment practices.’
- Job or role descriptions for all roles involving contact with children and / or vulnerable adults will contain reference to safeguarding responsibilities.
- There are person specifications for roles which contain a statement on core competency with regard to child/ vulnerable adult protection/ safeguarding
- Shortlisting is based on formal application processes/forms and not on provision of CVs
- Interviews are conducted according to equal opportunity principles and interview questions are based on the relevant job description and person specification
- CRB checks will be conducted for specific roles for all staff (paid or unpaid) working with children and vulnerable adults. Portable/ carry over CRB checks from another employer will not be deemed to be sufficient. It is a criminal offence for individuals barred by the ISA to work or apply to work with children or vulnerable adults in a wide range of posts.
- No formal job offers are made until after checks for suitability are completed (including CRB and 2 references). (You may wish to add in a qualifier about measures in place for exceptional and justifiable circumstances where employment/ role could commence prior to CRB clearance).

	Criminal Records Bureau checks It is vital to avoid CRB gaps in the organisation and to have consistency in the way roles requiring CRB checks are identified. A typical method for avoiding CRB gaps would be to 'maintain and review a list of roles across the organisation which involve contact with children/ vulnerable adults'. (You may wish to state who will review and how often). Organisations will ensure that their established staff and roles are regularly reviewed through e.g. • A 3 year rolling programme of re-checking CRB's is in place for holders of all identified posts. • Existing staff (paid or unpaid) who transfer from a role which does not require a CRB check to one which involves contact with children / vulnerable adults will be subject to a CRB check. Service delivery contracting and sub contracting. This section is relevant to organisations who may sub contract work, be sub contracted to provide services, or draw in sessional staff. A typical statement might be: • 'There will be systematic checking of safeguarding arrangements of partner organisations • Safeguarding will be a fixed agenda item on any partnership reporting meetings. • Contracts and memorandums of agreement for partnership delivery work will include clear minimum requirements, arrangements for safeguarding and non compliance procedures'.
7. Communications training and support for staff	Induction: Typical ways to include safeguarding issues during induction include: • Discussion of the Safeguarding Policy (and confirmation of understanding) • Discussion of other relevant policies	DANCE ADDICTS commits resources for induction, training of staff (paid and unpaid), effective communications and support mechanisms in relation to Safeguarding Induction will include (insert processes) Training

	• Ensure familiarity with reporting processes, the roles of line manager and Designated Senior Manager (and who acts in their absence) • Initial training on safeguarding including: safe working practices, safe recruitment, understanding child protection and the alerter guide for adult safeguarding You may wish to refer to formally assessing new members of staff's competence in applying safe practices (e.g. during probation period) Training: You will need to list the types of refresh training for staff. Sources of training could also be included e.g. training listed in www.gscb.org.uk (from the option 'I work with children and young people'). For those working with adults try links to training specifically for voluntary, independent and private sectors from : www.gloucestershire.gov.uk (follow the links to the training Community and Adult Care Directorate Adult Training pages (or telephone 01452 583672)). Communications – typical mechanisms for enabling effective discussion of safeguarding issues between staff will vary according to size of the organisation but might include safeguarding as a regular agenda item across: • team meetings • SMT meetings • Board meetings • One to one meetings (formal or informal), • clinical supervision Other aspects to highlight in the communications section might be • Participation in multi agency safeguarding procedures and meetings in order to be involved in child/ adult protection procedures • Participation in joint client visits	All staff who, through their role, are in contact with children and /or vulnerable adults will have access to safeguarding training at an appropriate level. Sources and types of training will include: (insert list) Communications and discussion of safeguarding issues Commitment to the following communication methods will ensure effective communication of safeguarding issues and practice: (insert list) Support We recognise that involvement in situations where there is risk or actual harm can be stressful for staff concerned. The mechanisms in place to support staff include: (insert mechanisms)

	• Involvement in the CAF process • Provision of a clear and effective reporting procedure which encourages reporting of concerns. • Encouraging open discussion (e.g. during supervision and team meetings) to identify and barriers to reporting so that they can be addressed. • Inclusion of safeguarding as a discussion prompt during supervision meetings/ appraisals to encourage reflection • Some organisations will have a safeguarding representatives team. If so it should be referred to in this section. • How staff are reminded about policies and procedures (refresh sessions etc) Support – typical support mechanisms would include: • Debriefing support for paid and unpaid staff so that they can reflect on the issues they have dealt with. • Seeking further support as appropriate e.g. access to counselling. • Staff who have initiated protection concerns will be contacted by line manager /DSM within a certain timescale e.g. 1 week).
8. Professional boundaries	This section covers aspects such as relationships with clients and the areas will be dependent on the type of work carried out with vulnerable people. Typical areas to include and suggested rules are as follows: • Giving and receiving gifts from clients: A typical statement would be '(Insert name of organisation) does not allow paid or unpaid staff to give gifts to or receive gifts from clients. However gifts may be provided by the organisation as part of a planned activity'.	Professional boundaries are what define the limits of a relationship between a support worker and a client. They are a set of standards we agree to uphold that allows this necessary and often close relationship to exist while ensuring the correct detachment is kept in place. (Insert name of organisation) expects staff to protect the professional integrity of themselves and the organisation. The following professional boundaries must be adhered to: (insert rules) The following policies also contain guidance on staff (paid or unpaid) conduct: (list policies)

	• Staff contact with user groups. A typical statement would be: 'Personal relationships between a member of staff (paid or unpaid) and a client who is a current service user is prohibited. This includes relationships through social networking sites such as facebook and bebo. It is also prohibited to enter into a personal relationship with a person who has been a service user over the past 12 months.' You may also wish to include statements about the following: • Use of abusive language • Response to inappropriate behaviour / language • Use of punishment or chastisement • Passing on service users' personal contact details • Degree of accessibility to service users (e.g. not providing personal contact details) • Taking family members to a client's home • Selling to or buying items from a service user • Accepting responsibility for any valuables on behalf of a client • Accepting money as a gift/ Borrowing money from or lending money to service users • Personal relationships with a third party related to or known to service users • Accepting gifts/ rewards or hospitality from organisation as an inducement for either doing/ not doing something in their official capacity • Cautious or avoidance of personal contact with clients You should also refer to other relevant policies which provide guidance e.g. Code of conduct, e-safety, computer misuse.	If the professional boundaries and/or policies are breached this could result in disciplinary procedures or enactment of the allegation management procedures

	There should be a statement about declaring actual or potential interests (e.g. discussing them with line manager or Designated Senior Manager). If you have a Conflict of Interests Policy in place, refer to this document.
9. Reporting	The simplest way to communicate your process is via a simple flow chart/ bullet point list. You can adjust the one shown below to demonstrate your processes. <pre> graph TD A[Communicate your concerns with your immediate manager] --> B[Seek medical attention for the vulnerable person if needed] B --> C["Discuss with parents of child Or with vulnerable person. Obtain permission to make referral if safe and appropriate"] C --> D["if needed seek advice from the Children and Families helpdesk or Adults helpdesk"] D --> E["Complete the Local Authority Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Incident Report Form if required and submit to the local authority within 24 hours of making a contact"] E --> F[Ensure that feedback from the Local Authority is received and their response recorded] </pre> The local authority has a process for reporting and this must be adopted. Organisations will be expected to complete the local authorities initial contact form	The process outlined below details the stages involved in raising and reporting safeguarding concerns at (insert name of organisation). Insert process when informing them of a concern about a child. The use of this form and compliance with the policy will be mandatory and must be built into your policy. Information on reporting concerns will be found at www.gscb.org.uk If the immediate manager is implicated, then refer to their line manager or peer.

10. Allegations Management	There should be a stated process for dealing with allegations against any professional or volunteer working for any organisation. There is an established allegations management procedure for working with children in Gloucestershire which can be viewed on www.gscb.org.uk The simplest process would be: First step: Any member of staff (paid or unpaid) from (insert name of organisation) is required to report any concerns in the first instance to their line manager/ safeguarding manager/ peer. [You may refer to making a written record at this stage e.g. 'A written record of the concern will be completed by (insert - the individual /line manager/ safeguarding manager/ peer)]. Second step- contact local authority for advice. In Gloucestershire this can be done via (for children) the Safeguarding Children Services Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) 09452 426994, or (for adults) the Adult Helpdesk 01452 426868 Third step – follow the advice provided Some organisations may prefer to include the full local authority process. For children, this can be sourced as a flow chart from www.gscb.org.uk	(Insert name of organisation) recognises its duty to report concerns or allegations against its staff (paid or unpaid) within the organisation or by a professional from another organisation. The process for raising and dealing with allegations is as follows: (Insert process – either the simple step 1, 2 and 3 or the full local authority process) (Insert name of organisation) recognises its legal duty to report any concerns about unsafe practice by any of its paid or unpaid staff to the Independent Safeguarding Authority (ISA), according to the ISA referral guidance document http://www.isa.gov.org.uk/PDF/ISA%20Referral%20Guidance%20%20V2009-02.pdf
11. Monitoring	The safeguarding aspects which would typically be monitored would include: • Safe recruitment practices	The organisation will monitor the following Safeguarding aspects: (insert list)

	• CRB checks undertaken • References applied for new staff • Records made and kept of supervision sessions • Training – register/ record of staff training on child/ vulnerable adult protection • Monitoring whether concerns are being reported and actioned • Checking that policies are up to date and relevant • Reviewing the current reporting procedure in place • Presence and action of Designated senior manager responsible for Safeguarding is in post The use of the Competency Framework available through the local VCS GSCB representative- go to www.gloshub.org.uk to find the contact details of the representative - is a good monitoring tool to assess the organisation's competency in safeguarding.
12. Managing information	This section refers to measures in place to ensure that information is managed and accurately and confidentially recorded.	Information will be gathered, recorded and stored in accordance with the following policies (insert policies e.g. Data Protection Policy, Confidentiality Policy). All staff must be aware that they have a professional duty to share information with other agencies in order to safeguard children and vulnerable adults. The public interest in safeguarding children and vulnerable adults may override confidentiality interests. However, information will be shared on a need to know basis only, as judged by the Designated Senior Manager. All staff must be aware that they cannot promise service users or their families/ carers that they will keep secrets.
13. Conflict resolution and complaints	If working with children there is a specific policy and procedure for conflict resolution which you can refer to. This section also refers to how people may make complaints to your organisation (following the established complaints procedures)	(Insert name of organisation) is aware of the GSCB policy on resolution of professional disagreements in work relating to the safety of children / Escalation Policy (at www.gscb.org.uk) and if necessary this will be taken forward by (insert title of person- e.g. Designated Senior Manager).

		Conflicts in respect of safety of vulnerable adults will be taken forward by (insert title of person- e.g. Designated Senior Manager) via the GCC Community and Adult Care Directorate
14. Communicating and reviewing the policy	Some organisations make it clear to service users what its duty is – eg a statement to customers about safeguarding arrangements may be produced and displayed on the website. There may be an agreement with each client or a pack produced for clients which explain the safeguarding arrangements. The Complaints Policy/Procedure could be referred to which outlines how clients can make complaint about the service. This section also states the review period for the policy. Reviewing simply means looking at the policy, checking it is still appropriate and making changes as necessary. Reviewing once a year is good practice but the policy should also be reviewed if there are changes in circumstances or legal requirements.	(Insert name of organisation) will make clients aware of the Safeguarding Policy through the following means (insert measures) This policy will be reviewed by (Insert title of person/ group responsible), every (insert number) years and when there are changes in legislation.
